AMY WALTER

FOR MORE THAN 25 YEARS, AMY WALTER has built a reputation as an accurate, objective, and insightful political analyst with unparalleled access to campaign insiders and decision-makers. Known as one of the best political journalists covering Washington, she is the publisher and editor-in-chief of the non-partisan Cook Political Report with Amy Walter, where she provides analysis of the issues, trends, and events that shape the political environment. A contributor to the PBS NewsHour, she provides weekly political analysis for the popular “Politics Monday” segment and is a featured contributor for the network’s election and convention special coverage events. She is also a regular Sunday panelist on NBC’s Meet the Press and CNN’s Inside Politics, and appears frequently on Special Report with Bret Baier on Fox News Channel. From 2017 until early 2021, Walter was the host of the weekly nationally syndicated program “Politics with Amy Walter” on The Takeaway from WNYC and PRX. She’s also the former political director of ABC News.

In her presentations, Walter expertly breaks down the electoral process, congressional culture, and the Washington political scene. Her astuteness, wit, and range of expertise creates an engaging, compelling presentation, and her reliable and accurate analysis has earned her numerous accolades. Amy Walter takes audiences on an insider’s tour of Washington through the eyes of the woman with her finger on the pulse of politics.

Named one of the “Top 50 Journalists” by Washingtonian magazine, as well as one of its “50 Most Powerful Women,” Walter was dubbed one of the most powerful people in politics in George magazine for her insights into the mechanics that make the political machine run. She also won the Washington Post’s Crystal Ball Award for her spot-on election predictions and has been frequently quoted as a congressional election expert in newspapers such as the Wall Street Journal, Washington Post, and the New York Times.

Walter graduated summa cum laude from Colby College. She was also honored by her alma mater her with an honorary PhD, and now serves on the Board of Advisors. She is also a member of the Board of Advisors for the University of Chicago’s Institute of Politics, where she was an inaugural fellow.

The premier community college advocacy event in Washington, D.C., bringing together more than 1,000 community college leaders.

The event shines a spotlight on the importance of our nation’s community colleges for Congress and the Administration. National Legislative Summit participants will hear from members of U.S. Congress, administration officials, leading political analysts, and other high-profile speakers about the current climate in D.C., upcoming election prospects, and legislative issues impacting community colleges.

2024 is a presidential election year, with control of the White House and the Capitol in the balance, and will be a critical year to strengthen relationships in both aisles to maintain strong support for our institutions regardless of who’s in charge.

Summit Highlights

- Learn about the broad array of issues confronting community colleges.
- Advocate on behalf of your college’s and your students’ interests.
- Hear directly from members of Congress, leading journalists, and analysts.
- Meet with members of Congress and their staffs to build and deepen relationships.
- Find out how to maintain these relationships year-round.
- Introduce students to federal policy and teach them the importance of civic engagement.
- Network and share knowledge with other college leaders from throughout the country.
