FEATURED SPEAKER

Mosheh Oinounou

MOSHEH OINOUNOU IS THE FOUNDER AND CEO OF MO NEWS, a leading independent news brand reaching more than one million people across social media, podcasts, newsletters, and premium platforms. Through a social-first, nonpartisan approach to journalism, Mo News helps audiences make sense of the biggest stories in politics, world affairs, business, technology, and culture.

Since launching Mo News in March 2020, Mosheh has built a loyal following with a facts-first approach to news that prioritizes clarity, context, and trust. What began as an Instagram account has grown into a multi-platform media company serving audiences around the world.

Mosheh hosts the daily Mo News Podcast, which has surpassed 15 million downloads and is ranked among the top news podcasts on Apple and Spotify. Mo News has been featured in The New York Times, The Washington Post, Forbes, and Variety.

Before founding Mo News, Mosheh spent nearly two decades as an Emmy Award-winning journalist and producer at CBS News, Fox News, and Bloomberg Television. He covered presidential elections, wars, natural disasters, and major breaking news events while producing interviews with dozens of world leaders, including five U.S. presidents. A proud College of Lake County alumnus, he went on to earn both his BA and MA from George Washington University.

Mosheh regularly leads conversations with CEOs, policymakers, and cultural leaders as a speaker and moderator at events around the world. His TEDx talk on rebuilding trust in media reflects a broader mission that also drives Mo News' media literacy initiatives for educators and students nationwide.

Community College

2027

FEBRUARY 7–10

NATIONAL LEGISLATIVE SUMMIT

AT THE

Marriott Marquis

WASHINGTON, DC

The premier community college advocacy event in Washington, D.C., bringing together more than 1,000 community college leaders.

The event shines a spotlight on the importance of our nation's community colleges for Congress and the Administration. National Legislative Summit participants will hear from members of U.S. Congress, administration officials, leading political analysts, and other high-profile speakers about the current climate in D.C., what to expect during the third year of the Trump Administration, and legislative issues impacting community colleges.

Not only does 2027 bring us year three of the second Trump Administration, it also ushers in the 120th Congress. With a new class of elected officials comes new legislative priorities and visions. This presents an opportunity for community college leaders and advocates to guide their lawmakers in championing policies that strengthen our institutions as high-quality postsecondary options and engines of workforce development. It will be a critical year to nurture relationships on both sides of the aisle to form and maintain strong support for our institutions.

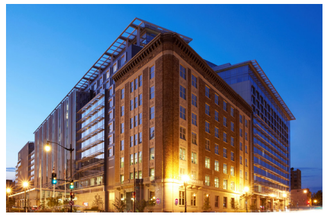

SUMMIT HIGHLIGHTS

- Learn about the broad array of issues confronting community colleges.
- Advocate on behalf of your college's and your students' interests.
- Hear directly from members of Congress, leading journalists, and analysts.
- Meet with members of Congress and their staffs to build and deepen relationships.
- Find out how to maintain these relationships year-round.
- Introduce students to federal policy and teach them the importance of civic engagement.
- Network and share knowledge with other college leaders from throughout the country.
